	11.12.2003 Shri B.P.Gupta, Counsel for the petitioner. Shri P.S.Koshy, Counsel for the respondents. Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the dispute is about date of birth of the petitioner. He further submitted that a representation (Annexure P/1) has been made which has not been decided by respondent No.2. Having heard learned counsel and considering the facts and circumstances of the case and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court ends of justice will be served if the petitioner is permitted to make a detailed representation afresh alongwith a copy of this order within a month before the competent authority/respondent and on such representation being filed, the same shall be considered and decided by the competent authority in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within 2 months from the date of receipt of representation after hearing the petitioner. If any adverse order is passed, the aggrieved party may avail the remedy under the law. It is also open to the respondents to refer the matter to the age determination committee, if they so desire. ..2..
